

infrastructures / water engineering

client

Nuove Acque S.p.A.

location

Casolino (AR), Toscana, Italia

status

2020 – 2021 Ongoing

budget

12,885,811.17 €

scope

Construction drawings of 1° , 2° , 3° Lot Construction management of 1° Lot EHS management

Sewage treatment plant of Casolino

The project of the Sewage treatment plant of Casolino involves the revamping of the entire section of anaerobic digestion and sludge dehydration with the use of equipment with high energy standards and performance. A new low-temperature sludge dryer and dehydrated and dried sludge storage silos are planned. The oxidative compartment has been updated with the use of a traditional mixed system and alternating cycles, with air production through high-performance compressors.

